Poem for Bereaved Parents

I give you this one thought to keep—
I am with you still, I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the mornings hush,
I am the swift, uplifting rush—
Of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone—
I am with you still – in each new dawn.

Sharing Parents is a Community of parents who have experienced the death of a baby, from conception through early infancy. Sharing Parents provides a safe place for grieving parents to share their feelings and experiences with a compassionate community. We give and receive support by sharing our common experiences, learning about the natural grief process, identifying our emotions, and working through our loss. For over 30 years, Sharing Parents has helped parents move toward healing.
